

ALFRED STREET BAPTIST CHURCH FOUNDATION

ASBC Foundation Co-hosting the 2020 HBCU Fair with the Alfred Street Baptist Church

We Believe In Education

ASBC has held education in high esteem since its beginning in 1803. As early as 1825, the church opened its first school on-site to educate local youth.

In 2002, ASBC saw the need for an even greater involvement in its support of the area's youth. That year, the church voted to form a separate Foundation dedicated to supporting the church's educational outreach efforts. The Foundation was to be a non-profit, charitable organization that was organized as a Virginia non-stock corporation. The organization formally received its 501(c)(3) non-profit status in 2005 and was eligible to begin accepting tax deductible donations and be-

-OUR MISSION-

In 2006, the ASBC Foundation Board voted to have as its primary focus area, the awarding of multiple-year college scholarships for financially challenged high school graduating seniors. And that has been our primary focus since then.

All students must meet select academic and financial need criteria. Our ideal candidate is a high achiever whose family is unable to meet the cost of higher education. That describes the ideal student, though actual grades and the needs of scholarship recipients vary.

The Foundation awards two types of scholarships, Millennium and Legacy. The Millennium Scholarships are funded by the ASBC Foundation and ASBC itself. The amount of these scholarships is $20,000 disbursed over four years ($5,000 per year for four years). Two Millennium Scholarships are awarded annually. The Legacy Scholarships are funded by individuals and groups who add their own criteria to Foundation requirements and determine the amounts awarded. Thus, someone may add a criterion that they desire a female student in STEM attending an HBCU. Another donor may desire to support a student whose parents are incarcerated. Legacy Scholarships vary from $1000 up to $20,000.

-OUR PRODUCT-

In 2007, the ASBC Foundation awarded its first scholarships to eleven graduating seniors from the Washington, DC Metropolitan area who planned on attending a four-year college or university. Those scholarships totaled $75,000.

For the 2019-20 school year, the Foundation awarded $159,500 in new scholarships to 46 high school students and 4 divinity school students, and $29,500 in scholarship renewals to 15 prior winners for a total of $189,000, for 72 scholarship awards. The 2019-20 scholarship recipients attended 30 of our nation's top universities, including 10 HBCUs.

Since 2007 the Alfred Street Baptist Church Foundation (Foundation) has awarded nearly $1.5 million dollars for 332 scholarship awards to students in the Washington Metropolitan area. Nearly 27% of those students were not able to receive any support from their families. Fifteen of the twenty-one Millennium Scholars fit that category. Some of our students had filed for independent status, some were living in cars and many were from single-parent home.

The Foundation makes a concerted effort to reach students who are economically challenged, yet still excel academically despite the odds. If requested we provide some students with additional financial assistance, counseling and other support. As a result, we have a 97% success rate based on first semester college GPA's of 2.0 or above. Since 2007, our students have attended 102 of our nation's top universities.

2019 Millennium Scholar

Adelina Decius
(W.T. Woodson High School)
American University - Law/ Foreign Policy
2019 Millennium Scholar $20,000
($5,000/yr for 4 years)

While in high school, Adelina had been challenged by frequent moves and attended four different high schools. Her faith in God enabled her to become stable and spiritually grounded after moving in with an aunt. She says, "The transition from high school to college can be quite an adjustment. I vividly remember move-in day and the rush of excitement I felt about moving to D.C. Walking on campus and swiping my American University (AU) card felt surreal. Decorating my room with my family seems like a nostalgic memory. Everything I ever wanted and dreamed of was happening so fast. For the first time, I had a new slate where I could create whatever life I wanted for myself and I could be whomever I wanted to be. I explored AU's campus and found my secret places of joy. I attended events on campus and began to create a community of friends. I visited different bookstores, art museums, and restaurants in D.C just to get a feel for the city. I thoroughly enjoyed the process of curating the life I have always wanted. Thank you Alfred Street Baptist Church Foundation for this opportunity!

2019 Millennium Scholar

Jamal Thomas
(McKinley Tech High School)
Morehouse College

Jamal wants to open a school for boys in southeast D.C. He states, "There is no institution that currently provides the support needed by this group." Jamal successfully avoided gangs and has managed to succeed despite poverty. His dream of playing in the National Football League was quashed by a severe rotator cuff tear. He worked part-time during all four years of high school and held two jobs in the summer. Jamal wrote, "My first semester at Morehouse College was everything I could have hoped it to be and better. I ended up finishing the semester with a 3.56 GPA. I've made several friends, and I had tremendous amounts of fun. I major in kinesiology and sports management and I also study Mandarin. Overall, I feel like I have chosen the right school for me and I look forward to prospering and growing as a person and within my academics even more second semester. I would like to thank the Alfred Street Baptist Church Foundation for investing into my future. It means so much to me and the implications that this has for my future are astounding.

... AND SOME OF THEIR TESTIMONIES

Alyse Johnson (Herndon High School)
Virginia Tech - Multimedia Journalism
2018 Stafford Family Legacy Scholar

Since my scholarship being awarded in 2018, I have maintained a 3.79 cumulative GPA. I have also been actively involved in some community service initiatives in the Blacksburg community. I am so grateful each day for the opportunity to learn in an environment where I enjoy and thrive. I am thankful to have been a scholarship recipient. Your program has done SO much for my college career and I am extremely grateful. Thanks for recommending me for Our Daily Bread's 2020 Book Award also.

Kameron Nelson (Hayfield Secondary School)
Howard University - Computer Science
2019 Men's Ministry Scholar & 2019 Milton Turner Legacy Scholar

Thank you so much for the scholarships. I am reaping the benefits of this opportunity, and am greatly enjoying my college experience. I just recently received the 2020 National Society of Black Engineers Pre-Collegiate Male of the Year Award. I will do my best to make the organization proud.

Mikayla Sharrieff (Benjamin Banneker High School)
Spelman College - Bio-medical Engineering
2019 Helen McCoy Scholar

Hello, my name is Mikayla Sharrieff and I am a 2019 recipient of the Helen McCoy Legacy Scholarship. I am currently a freshman dual-degree engineering major at Spelman College. This past semester, I ended with a 3.45 GPA. I would like to note that I am truly grateful for receiving the Helen McCoy Legacy Scholarship. This scholarship made me realize that others believe in my STEM pursuits and want to see me succeed within throughout my academic journey.

Kyra Parker (TC Williams High School) - ASBC Member
Virginia Tech - Cognitive & Behavioral Neuroscience
2016, 2017, 2018, 2019 Joyce K. Peterson Legacy Scholar

As I look back on the past three and a half years I am thankful and blessed for the amount of growth I have experienced. The opportunities that I have been able to take part in throughout my college career is in part due to the many blessings, prayers, and encouragement from Alfred Street Baptist Church and the Alfred Street Baptist Church Foundation. My ultimate career goal is to become a licensed clinical psychologist and work with African-American youth suffering from trauma and race-related stress. After I graduate in May, I will be taking a gap year in order to become an even more competitive applicant for graduate school. I trust that God will lead me on a path that is meant for me as everything happens within His plan.

Mario Menendez (Montgomery Blair High School)
University of Maryland – College Park - Marketing
2016, 2017, 2018, 2019 SunTrust Foundation Scholar

Freshman year 2016: Knowing that I have the support of scholarship donors, institutions, and organizations has grounded my collegiate journey around community and a sense of "it takes a village." Personally, it took a village to get me to where I am today and where I will go in the future. Each day, with the help of the Alfred Street Baptist Church Foundation Scholarship, I am one step closer to being the first in my family to pursue their higher education in the United States and leaving an impactful legacy at the University of Maryland. Senior year 2020: Four years, two degrees, five study abroad countries, and countless hours of community service later, I will walk the stage as one of the top students in my graduating class. Post-graduation, I will be a Creative Technology Fellow at You & Mr. Jones (an advertising/technology firm) in New York, NY, followed by a two-year rotational program at Capital One in Plano, TX. In the near future, I hope to pursue an MBA at Harvard Business School and continue my legacy toward changing the world.

-OUR SPONSORS-

The Foundation receives funding from multiple sources including Combined Federal Campaign, ASBC, rental property, general donations, and investments. The pie chart below depicts the distribution of annual sources of revenue.

Our largest source of funding is Legacy Scholarships. The Legacy Scholarships are funded by individuals, families, sororities, church ministries and other organizations who provide their own criteria (e.g., specific college, specific gender, HBCU, PWI, STEM, specific majors) in addition to the Foundation's general criteria. Some Legacy scholarships are funded for one year, others for all four years. The 69 Legacy Scholarships (new and renewals) awarded in 2019 vary from $1,000 to $20,000 and were funded by various individuals and organizations as indicated below. Listed at the top is a scholarship funded by the annual income from our first major donation, Mrs. Jacqueline Henry-Greene (the former director of the Senior Choir, now named Trinity), who donated her entire estate (house, investments, miscellaneous) to the Foundation. The table below summarizes the categories of Legacy Scholarships, the number of scholarships given in that category and the range of the dollar amount for those scholarships.

LEGACY CATEGORY	NUMBER	AMOUNT of SCHOLARSHIP
ESTATES (1)	3	$2,000
FRATERNITIES/SORORITIES (3)	3	$1,000 - $3,000
FAMILY FOUNDATIONS (3)	7	$3,000 - $5,000
BANK FOUNDATIONS (1)	3	$ 2,500
ASBC CHURCH (1)	2	$5,000 - $20,000
ASBC DIACONATE (1)	1	$5,000
ASBC MEN'S MINISTRY (1)	10	$1,000
ASBC DISCIPLE GROUP (1)	2	$1000
ASBC ASSOCIATE MINISTERS (1)	2	$1000
INDIVIDUALS (24)	36	$1,000 – $5,000

The Legacy Scholarships have become the 'bread and butter' of the Foundation's scholarship program. Fully 60% of all donations come via this instrument. Members and organizations who desire to honor a deceased family member or organizations who wish to honor a special leader find the Legacy Scholarships a convenient vehicle for meeting these goals. Current Legacy scholarships include awards directed to students who major in business, computer science, engineering, music, etc.; or students attending HBCUs; or students who have been in foster care or whose parents are incarcerated. Legacy Scholarships can be initiated for as little as $1,000, though some families choose to donate as much as $20,000 to honor their selected individual or cause. To initiate a Legacy Scholarship, one need only contact Deacon Pat Wallace, President of the ASBC Foundation at (301) 292-9412 or at our e-mail address: Foundation@alfredstreet.org.
