MAJORING IN THE MINORS: BUILDING TOGETHER

'The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,' says the Lord of hosts. 'The glory of this latter temple shall be greater than the former,' says the Lord of hosts. 'And in this place I will give peace,' says the Lord of hosts.

FROM JUDGEMENT TO HOPE: A STUDY ON THE PROPHETS by Walter Brueggemann

In this collection of studies, popular biblical scholar Walter Brueggemann explores the Major Prophets, the Minor Prophets, and the prophets of the Persian Age. By highlighting the common themes of judgment and hope found in the prophets messages, Brueggemann invites readers to consider what those messages mean for us today. Questions for reflection conclude each chapter. From Judgment to Hope is suitable for individual or group study.

ALFRED STREET BAPTIST CHURCH COMMUNITY,

FROM THE OFFICE OF CHRISTIAN CARE & COUNSELING

AUGUST IS THE MONTH OF REST!

What is a four-letter word for pause, take a breath, and relax? If you answered REST, you are absolutely right! This small four-letter word is often met with heavy contention and resistance. Moreover, we tend to think about what we will lose if we stop, instead of what we can ultimately gain. Additionally, we fail to take a complete account of the burdensome weight added to us when we do not rest. That weight often consists of chart-topping levels of tiredness, anxiety, feeling overwhelmed, frustration, anger, worry, sadness, stress, isolation, illness and poor self-care habits to begin the list. Many of which – if addressed with rest and self-care – can be healthily managed.

In the words of Pastor Wesley, “Can I Push It”? Rest plays a significant role in our lives. Without it, we rob ourselves of the ability to revive, reset, refocus, regain, realign, restart, “re” anything in a greater, more God pleasing way. Rest is biblical. Rest is soul-filling. Rest is physically necessary and mentally revitalizing. You cannot live without it.

We encourage you to go back and grab these points and more in Pastor's sermon entitled "Selah". <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rbnsDoXphUo&feature=youtu.be> as we enter into this time and space of rest. Take this time to develop a new relationship with REST during the month of August.

Here are a few tips to help get you started:

R - CONSIDER WHAT CAN WAIT UNTIL YOUR RETURN...

If you cannot go cold turkey and just stop everything- then think about what can be placed on hold for 30 days. Then look at what can be lessened. Do you have to be on all 15 Zoom calls for the week, every conference call, every chat discussion? Look for opportunities to "tap out" in order to take a breath.

E - MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO ENJOY YOUR TIME...

Be creative during this time. Take a nap in the middle of the day. Get up an hour later, shut down an hour earlier. Take an adventure by re-reading your favorite book. Take advantage of virtual offerings (tours and vacations). Enjoy a safe staycation. Start a phone tree and call someone you have not talked to in a while. Remember, COVID-19 has not cancelled everything. Do something different and replenishing.

S - SURRENDER TO THE PATH REST LEADS YOU ON...

Make a goal to embrace rest and be intentional not to resist it because it is different. Use this time to work on being more disciplined and comfortable with rest in every area of your life.

T - TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE...

Remind yourself that Time is important. There is no better time than now to implement a rest plan that works for you. Time is one thing that you cannot get back once it has passed. Take full advantage of this time by honoring God's will concerning rest. Taking time to rest will make all of the difference in your life.
